

You are cordially invited to attend the formal launch of the

Natalee Holloway
RESOURCE CENTER

Hosted by Beth Holloway and
The National Museum of Crime & Punishment

In 2005, Natalee Holloway went missing in Aruba during a class trip, and to this day, her case remains unsolved. After the tragedy of losing her only daughter, her mother Beth Holloway vowed to dedicate her life to helping others who might be in similar circumstances.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Tuesday, June 8th, 2010

5:00PM-8:00PM

National Museum of Crime & Punishment

575 7th St, NW (on 7th btwn E & F)

The admission fee at the museum is waived for the event,
but NHRC will be onsite collecting donations

For more information, please visit www.helpthemissing.org.