

Natalee Holloway
RESOURCE CENTER

Dear Friend:

In May, 2005, Natalee Holloway went missing during a high school graduation trip to Aruba, it sparked an international frenzy with hundreds of volunteers, Aruban investigators, the FBI, and Dutch soldiers united in their efforts to find Natalee. Despite several witnesses to her whereabouts on the eve of her disappearance, Natalee was never found.

In honor of her memory the National Museum of Crime & Punishment and Beth Holloway have partnered together to form the Natalee Holloway Resource Center (NHRC).

NHRC will provide families of missing persons with an action plan, missing posters template, contacts, resources and handle press releases and media reach. NHRC also provides educational programs for traveling safe, crime prevention, and encourages careers in the fields of forensic science and law enforcement.

I am writing today to ask you to consider supporting our resource center. Anything you provide will be greatly appreciated and it's tax deductible! Our donation form is attached.

If you wish to learn more about the resource center please visit our website www.helpthemissing.org or email us at nhrc@crimemuseum.org.

Sincerely,

All donations go to the Natalee Holloway Resource Center (NHRC), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, organized to fund and support projects to enhance the mission of the NHRC. FEIN: 27-0586899

575 7th Street, NW | Washington DC 20004 | www.helpthemissing.org