

CRIME MUSEUM

Explore American History from a different perspective. The Crime Museum in Washington, DC is described by Good Morning America as a “must see for CSI fans.” There are five unique galleries that burrow deep into the studies of criminal intent, criminal profiles, the penal system, victims, crime prevention, forensic science, law enforcement and the Judiciary Branch of government. It also includes a crime lab, the filming studios for America's Most Wanted and 3-floor, 25,000 sq ft, 100+ interactives on America's favorite subject.

Our Beginning:

John Morgan is a successful entrepreneur and respected attorney with a proven track record of growing start-up enterprises into large, profitable companies. The museum conception began when Mr. Morgan was amongst the tourist crowds on a trip to Alcatraz Island, the former federal prison that's now a national park in San Francisco, CA. After his tour of the prison, he decided that a museum that discussed the history of crime, punishment and CSI was needed. His goal was to make it interactive and to also honor law enforcement. He partnered with his friend John Walsh, host of America's Most Wanted to bring his vision to reality.

Highlighted attractions include:

- CSI Lab: Enter a crime scene and interact to solve the case in a real crime scene lab
